CapB

General Issue: Class A

Dealing, Transacting & Intermediating

Prior to establishing formal relations with CapB, the distinguished counterpart must indeed be respectful of the values, beliefs, and customs upheld and defended by CapB in order for them to ultimately partake in any confessed or private undertaking pertaining to economic, commercial, or intellectual means. Hence, by classifying and assigning the bulk of activities assumed by CapB, which deal-making, transaction financing, and intermediating services are concerned, there would arise a need to dictate certain standards of ideal status so as to define the preferred qualities of the approaching counterpart.

Qualities, that make a hopeful affiliate stand out amongst the adhering masses, are those that embody an honest, prudent, and diligent character. These three traits, in the eye of our interest, are what we actually seek in a counterpart.

Trinity of Sovereign Standards

A Kind Note

As always, CapB sincerely welcomes all forms of collaboration and cooperation meant to facilitate unrealized, but mutually beneficial, ventures and opportunities of economic, commercial, or intellectual nature.
